

Loadmaster Trailer Company LTD. Credit Card Authorization Form

Thank you for purchasing a trailer from Loadmaster Trailer Company Ltd. In order to process your credit card payment, we need the following information to protect ourselves and you against any possible credit card fraudulent activity. Please rest assured we will never give out any of your information; this is solely for our record and to be compliant with PCI standards. Your credit card information will be kept in a locked safe and this form will act as authorization for your current and future purchases from Loadmaster. Once your trailer is paid in full the credit card information will be properly shred and discarded.

If for any reason you decide to cancel your trailer order, you must do so before your trailer goes into production. If you decide to cancel your trailer purchase, you will receive your deposit back, less a 3.5% credit card processing fee. If the trailer has already started in production, you are not able to cancel your order. Similarly, if we had to order or build custom parts for your trailer such as custom axles, bow stops, tool boxes, lighting, brakes etc. you will owe for the cost of these items if you still choose to cancel your order with us.
